| Do. Do. from the Weigh-house,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 1 6                           | 1 4       | 1 6       |
| For a Cart Load of Furniture, or similar articles that require long time to load and unload, for the first hour, and so proportionally, for each Cart,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 1 0                           | 1 0       | 1 0       |
| And for every other hour, and so proportionally, for each Cart,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 0 9                           | 0 9       | 0 9       |
| In carrying Grain, the Carters shall always find sufficient Bags, and carry the whole of their load up one storey, or into a ground flat, without any assistance from the employer.                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                               |           |           |
| When the Cart Load is to be carried up more than one storey, the Carter shall receive 2d. per Cart additional; but in this case the Carter may carry up half the load at his own expence, his employer being at the expense of carrying up the other half.                                                                                                                                |                               |           |           |
| The Carter in all cases shall assist in loading and unloading, but must always remain by his Cart; and when able so to do, he must load and unload the Cart himself.                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                               |           |           |
| All such quantities of Goods as are to be considered as a single Cart Load, and likewise all Rates and Fares not before specially provided for, in case of any dispute, shall be settled by the Sitting Magistrate.                                                                                                                                                                       |                               |           |           |
| The following Rules and Regulations shall be observed by the Carters, and shall be strictly enforced in all time coming.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                               |           |           |
| 1st. Every Carter shall enter his name and place of residence, in a book to be kept for that purpose, in the Town Clerks' Chambers, and must find security for the faithful and honest discharge of his duty, under a suitable penalty; and any Carter plying in the streets and neglecting to find such caution, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding two pounds sterling for each offence. |                               |           |           |

2d. Every Carter shall be furnished with a Badge, which will be numbered according to the order in which his name is entered. These badges must be worn constantly by the Carters when at work; and they must immediately get the number which is on the Badge, painted on some conspicuous part of their Carts, under a penalty of ten shillings for each offence.

3d. Every Carter who shall refuse to work when not engaged or who shall demand higher Fares than those specified in the foregoing Table, shall be liable to a penalty of ten shillings for each offence. And every Carter who says he is engaged, shall, upon being asked, specify the person by whom, and the hour at which he is engaged, and he shall not refuse to be employed in the interval between the time he is so asked, and the hour of his engagement, under a penalty of ten shillings for each offence.

4th. Every Carter shall be furnished with, and shall always carry about with him a copy of these Regulations and Fares, which he shall produce and shew, when required, to his employers, under a penalty of ten shillings for each offence. And,

Lastly, Every Carter is hereby enjoined, strictly to attend and conform to the Regulations in the Act 12 Geo. III. Cap. 45, also to the Regulations with regard to the carriage of Timber, in the Act 33d. Geo. III. Cap. 104, under the several penalties therein mentioned.

REGULATIONS FOR STEAM BOATS,

And other Vessels plying on the River Clyde.

I. That the Owners, Masters, Pilots, and Crews, of the Boats, navigated by the power of Steam, plying between Glasgow and Greenock, shall forthwith lodge, with the Harbour-Master of Glasgow, the name of the Vessel, and a list of the names and places of residence of the said Owners, Masters, Pilots, and Crews; or, if the management is in the hands of a Committee of Owners, of the names of the Members of such Committee, who shall be responsible for the strict observance of the present regulations; and they shall renew the list from time to time when any change takes place in the said Owners, Committees, or persons so employed, under the penalty of forty shillings for each offence.

II. That for the accommodation of Passengers, a particular part, or parts, of the Quay of the Broomielaw of Glasgow, shall in future be allotted by the Harbour-Master, for the use of the Steam Boats plying on the River, which Boats shall get inside births or stations nearest the Quay, according to the dates of their respective arrivals; and the Masters and Crews of the Boats lying nearest the Quay shall give free access to Passengers to and from the Boats lying in the outside births or stations, as also free access for the conveyance of Luggage and Coals to and from said Boats, under the penalty of forty shillings for each offence.

III. That when Steam Boats attempt to pass each other from astern, the Boat which sails slowest, shall give way to the larboard side, for the faster sailing Boat to pass, when the latter comes within thirty yards of the former; and shall offer no obstruction, by crossing the channel, or otherwise, to the free passage of the Boat astern, under the penalty of Five Pounds Sterling, for each offence, besides damages.

IV. That when the said Boats, sailing in opposite directions, meet, each shall keep to the larboard side, so as to afford all possible facility to each other in passing, under the like penalty of five pounds for each offence, besides damages.

V. That vessels of any description, lying aground or at anchor in the shallow or narrow parts of the River, shall not lay their anchors in the deepened channel, unless absolutely necessary; and if they are obliged to do so, their buoy ropes shall not exceed three fathoms and a half, under a penalty of forty shillings for each offence. And, if they take ground across the channel, they shall keep their booms loose, and take in their bowsprits, under the like penalty of forty shillings for each offence.

VI. That none of the said Steam Boats shall cross the tracking or rowing lines of the vessels plying on the River, where there is room to pass on the off side, under the penalty of five pounds for each offence.

VII. That none of the said Steam Boats shall ply in the twilight or in the dark, without having lights a-head fitted up properly, and without having one of the crew stationed at the bow of the Boat, as a look-out, to give notice in due time of any obstruction, or danger. And all vessels whatever, lying at anchor or aground, in the River and Frith of Clyde, shall, when it is dark, have lights hung out at the part of the Vessel nearest the deep water, under the like penalty of five pounds for each offence, besides damages.

VIII. That in all cases, where either Passengers or Goods are to be taken in by, or landed from, such Steam Vessels, by means of small Boats of any description, the Masters, Pilots, or other persons having the charge of the Steam Boats, shall stop the paddles of the Steam Boats in proper time, when these small Boats approach them, and shall keep the paddles stopped until the small Boats, whether with or without their fare, are completely clear off, and beyond the influence of the Steam Boats, or the surge occasioned by them; and shall, in general, be cautious to prevent all violent collision, or entanglement, between the Steam Boats and the small Boats, and all crowding or overloading of these small Boats: And all Masters, Pilots, or other persons having charge of Steam Boats, shall, for every breach of this Regulation, be liable in a penalty of forty shillings, besides damages.

IX. That no person on board a Steam Boat shall presume to give any order or direction to the crew, or any of them, except the person who has the command of the Vessel at the time, under the penalty of forty shillings for each offence.

X. That no ballast, ashes, earth, rubbish, or stones, shall be put overboard of any Vessel into the River between the Broomielaw and Dumbarton Castle, under a penalty of five pounds sterling for each offence.

XI. That a printed copy of these Regulations shall be affixed upon a conspicuous part of both the Cabins of each Steam Boat plying on the River Clyde, under the like penalty.

XII. That the damages incurred may be sued and recovered at the instance of any party interested, and the penalties at the instance of the Procurator Fiscal of Court.

Managers of the POLICE of the City of Glasgow.

The Lord Provost, three Baillies, Dean of Guild and Deacon convenor, ex officio, and twenty-four Commissioners, chosen by Inhabitants possessing houses of £10 yearly rent and upwards.

The City is divided into twenty-four Wards, or Districts; under the inspection of twenty-four Commissioners, chosen upon the last week of July annually. James Mitchell, Master of Police; 15 officers, 3 of whom are Constables, and 74 Watchmen.

REGULATIONS.

A Constable with four Officers attend regularly at the Police Office, Albion-street, to call the roll of the Watchmen, half an hour before they take their stations, and mark such as are absent. The Constable and Officers are thereafter to patrol the streets until between two and three in the morning, or longer if necessary, to observe if the Watchmen are doing their duty; to apprehend vagrants and disorderly persons; and to give, in writing, a report of the whole transactions, in the morning, to the Master of Police.

The Watchmen are to be on their respective Stations, in the months of April to September inclusive, at 10 o'clock at night, and continue till 5 in the morning; and in the months of October to March inclusive, at 9 o'clock at night, and continue until 6 in the morning.

N. B. If the inhabitants are attentive to keep up their numbers in a legible state, it will be easy for the Publisher of this work to give the shortest, and at the same time most accurate, direction to their lodgings, even where these are within Closes, by inserting their name, Street-number, and interior number, all in a line, e. g. John Brown, No. 22, 11, High-street; that is, in Closs, No. 22, and No. 11, within that Closs. And they will observe, that if they suffer their numbers to be obliterated, and do not immediately replace them, they incur penalties.

POLICE OF GORBALS, under the management of three Baillies and twelve Commissioners, chosen by inhabitants possessing houses of £5 yearly rent, and upwards. The Barony is divided into twelve Wards, under the inspection of the Commissioners. Donald M'Kenzie, Master of Police.

The Watchmen to be on their stations at 10 o'clock at night, and to continue until 5 o'clock morning, from April to September, inclusive; and until six o'clock from October till March, inclusive. —The Sergeants on duty to patrol the streets alternately during the night. To see that the Watchmen are doing their duty, the lamps burning properly, to apprehend suspicious or disorderly persons, all of which is to be entered in a book for the inspection of the Master of Police in the morning, and the Commissioners at the weekly board.

The funds are raised from the yearly rent of subjects, rented or valued at £2 and under £4 sterling, yearly, 6d. per £ Sterling. —£4 and under £6, 8d. per do. —at £6 and under £9, 10d. per do. —at £9 and upwards, 1s. per do.
